

KANSAS ASSOCIATION OF BIOLOGY TEACHERS
2016 FALL CONFERENCE
Saturday, September 10
Emporia State University Science Hall 72

8:30-9:00am Check-in, On-Site Registration

9:00am Introduction (“housekeeping information”)

9:05am

Current Kansas Wildlife Regulations Relevant to High School & College Biology Teachers
Col. Kevin W. Jones, Director of Law Enforcement, Kansas Dept. of Wildlife, Parks & Tourism

10:00-10:45am

Current Hazardous Materials Regulations Relevant to Kansas Biology Teachers—I
Brian Burbeck, Compliance, Assistance & Enforcement Unit, Kansas Department of Health & Environment, Bureau of Waste Management

10:45-11:30am

Current Hazardous Materials Regulations Relevant to Kansas Biology Teachers—II
Charles Krumins, Compliance, Assistance & Enforcement Unit, Kansas Department of Health & Environment, Bureau of Waste Management

11:30am-noon

Overview of the Animal Welfare Act for Biology Teachers
Peggy Shaver, DVM MPH, USDA-APHIS-Animal Care, Fort Collins, CO

Noon-1:00pm Lunch (facilities nearby)

1:00-1:30pm

Scheduled Drugs, Symptoms, and Enforcement within the Educational Setting
Supervisor Dwayne Holsapple, Kansas City Office, Drug Enforcement Administration

1:30-4:30pm Half-Hour Sessions Including:

What Can a Science Teacher Say About Gender and Sexual Identity?

John Richard Schrock, Department of Biological Sciences, Emporia State University

Determining Mosquito Distribution from Egg Data: The Role of the Citizen Scientist.

Noah Busch, Manhattan High School, Kansas

And additional presentations from Kansas biology teachers focusing on the use of organisms with students

Check kabt.org for day-by-day updates!

No pre-registration or KABT Membership required. Conference fee $15.